Maple Ridge boy leads 2nd Annual BC SPCA Wiggle Waggle Walk
Vancouver, BC (Feb. 20, 2007) — If you want to help BC's many homeless, injured, and abused animals, put your paws to the pavement and take part in the 2nd Annual Wiggle Waggle Walk.

The annual fund raising event is organized by nine-year-old Maple Ridge resident Jacob Carbery. Jacob's goal is to raise $100,000 for the BC SPCA's Biscuit Fund, a fund which provides emergency medical treatment for injured homeless and wild animals.

The wagging begins at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 3 at the Maple Ridge Branch of the BC SPCA, 10235 Jackson Road. On hand for the fun will be Z95.3's Nat and Drew with their Street Team. Other highlights will be the sale of Biscuit Fund "Wiggle Waggle Wear", a raffle, and a "De PAWZ it booth" for donations of dog and cat food, towels and blankets.

"I love animals. So this year I wanted to make my Wiggle Waggle Walk bigger and better since the animals need all the help they can get. By making my Wiggle Waggle Walk for the BC SPCA's Biscuit Fund better every year, people will continue to support it and know this is an easy way to help make a difference in an animal's life," said Jacob Carbery, BC SPCA's Biscuit Fund ambassador.
