Biscuit Fund launches first ever annual campaign to save BC's abused, homeless animals

New BC SPCA fund saves Prince George cat bitten by fox

Vancouver, BC — Tiny, a one-year-old Flame Point Siamese whose tail rotted as the result of a fox bite covered by duct tape, is one of the hundreds of injured, homeless and wild animals who receive emergency medical treatment each year thanks to the BC SPCA Biscuit Fund.

After being surrendered to the North Cariboo BC SPCA in Prince George, Tiny was being examined at the BC SPCA Spay & Neuter clinic when the veterinarian noticed the young cat had a piece of duct tape stuck to his tail. The tape was covering the ravages of a fox bite which had caused the tail to rot, and amputation was urgently required. Throughout his entire ordeal, Tiny was sweet and affectionate, proving that he is a really great cat -- with or without a tail!

In honour of deserving animals such as Tiny, the BC SPCA Biscuit Fund is launching the first ever Biscuit Fund campaign to raise the $1.5 million it costs annually to save these animals and give them a second chance at finding a loving home. 100 per cent of funds raised by the Biscuit Fund 2007 "Treat Yourself, Help the Animals" Campaign will go directly to helping the animals.

"The goal of the Biscuit Fund campaign is to encourage people who would normally donate to the BC SPCA to give a little extra for the Biscuit Fund, dedicating funds to this important, life-saving effort," said Simon Trevelyan, BC SPCA general manager of revenue development.

"With the recent launch of the Biscuit Fund website, www.sPCA.bc.ca/biscuit, donating is easier than ever and donors' contributions go to helping specific animals whose stories and pictures can be viewed online," added Trevelyan.

To help other wonderful animals like Tiny, contributions can be made in the following ways:

- Donating online at www.sPCA.bc.ca/biscuit, or calling 604.681.7271 or 1.800.665.1868.
- Sponsoring or co-sponsoring an animal through annual or monthly giving.
- Volunteering time for Biscuit Fund fund raising activities throughout the year.

About the Biscuit Fund

The Biscuit Fund was established in 2004, named after the wonderful dog that inspired the program. Biscuit was a stray wandering the streets when he was repeatedly stabbed by an unknown person and left for dead. The small dog managed to pull himself into a nearby garage where he was found by a family and rushed to a veterinarian. Biscuit was transferred to the BC SPCA where he was nursed back to health in a safe, nurturing environment. Despite his ordeal, Biscuit harbours no grudges. He is friendly and gentle, and thriving in the care of his new loving family!

The Biscuit Fund website not only shows one how to help, it also displays photos of the animals that have already been helped, and identifies the donors who have generously sponsored them.
